Hello from A&K Down Under,

Wherever you are in the world, I hope the breeze of optimism is blowing your way and that your clients have started to make grand travel plans for when the world reopens. This month we want to inspire you and your travellers with the bountiful produce we enjoy here in Australia and New Zealand. From the wines of New Zealand's Central Otago and Marlborough Sounds to the cheese and oysters of Tasmania, incredible gourmet regions abound.

In Western Australia's magnificent Margaret River region, truffles and Cabernet Sauvignon entice wine enthusiasts and gourmands alike. South Australia boasts the highest concentration of boutique vintners in the country with a spotlight on the picturesque Barossa Valley which is home to celebrated vineyards aplenty. And in Victoria, home to Australia's culinary capital, Melbourne, a cornucopia of exceptional flavours can be found from the orchards and vineyards of the Yarra Valley to the olive groves and cheesemongers of the Mornington Peninsula.

Encourage your clients to start their plans for a return to the Antipodes and take inspiration from our favourite epicurean itineraries below.

Kind regards,

Kathie Sikkes
