Hello from A&K Down Under,

As the world slowly begins to restart from what feels like a long slumber, we have been busy working away, excited to unveil our new portfolio of unforgettable journeys and immersive experiences, all designed to amaze even the most seasoned travellers.

Privacy is the new luxury, the time and space to explore at your own pace, discovering the wide open spaces and panoramic landscapes for which Australia and New Zealand are famous. Superyacht charters, secluded, exclusive-use homesteads and estates – we've curated a collection of indulgent private escapes so your clients can explore our spectacular locations in unhurried style and comfort.

From the forested wilds of the Murray River in South Australia to the dramatic vistas of Western Australia's Kimberley region, our new portfolio boasts a diverse range of private explorations, ready and waiting for international explorers when the time is right. Dive into some of our offerings below, and start planning the perfect private escape for your most valued guests.

Kind regards,

Kathie Sikkes
