ITINERARY

1 Fly to Nyerere National Park

Fly into Nyerere National Park from any East African country. Arrive in time for lunch and a little afternoon siesta should you wish. Once the heat of the day passes it is time to get out and explore this vast landscape on a game drive.

Overnight: Bronze: Rufiji River Camp | Silver: Serena Mivumo River Lodge | Gold: Roho ya Selous
Meal Plan: L,D

2 Nyerere National Park

You have the day to explore the Nyerere National Park. There are a wide range of activities available in the park.

One of the best ways to experience the waterways of the park is by boat. While floating beneath overhanging bushes bursting with birdlife, you may spot intricately woven weaver's nests and flashes of dazzling color as birds dart in and out.

Cast a line to try your luck at fishing, or simply sit back in the comfort of your chair and gaze through your binoculars at the many water birds that inhabit the lakes and rivers. Your trip ends on a sandbank where you can sit and enjoy a sundowner as the sun slips below the horizon.

Another way to experience the landscape is on a walking safari - it allows you to soak up the sounds, smells and the colours of the bush in a way that a game drive does not. There is no roar of the engine to drown out the sound of the wind shaking the canopies overhead or the hoof thump from a territorial male impala.
