Exceptional experiences beyond the reach of the average traveller.

The Field of Light at Uluru

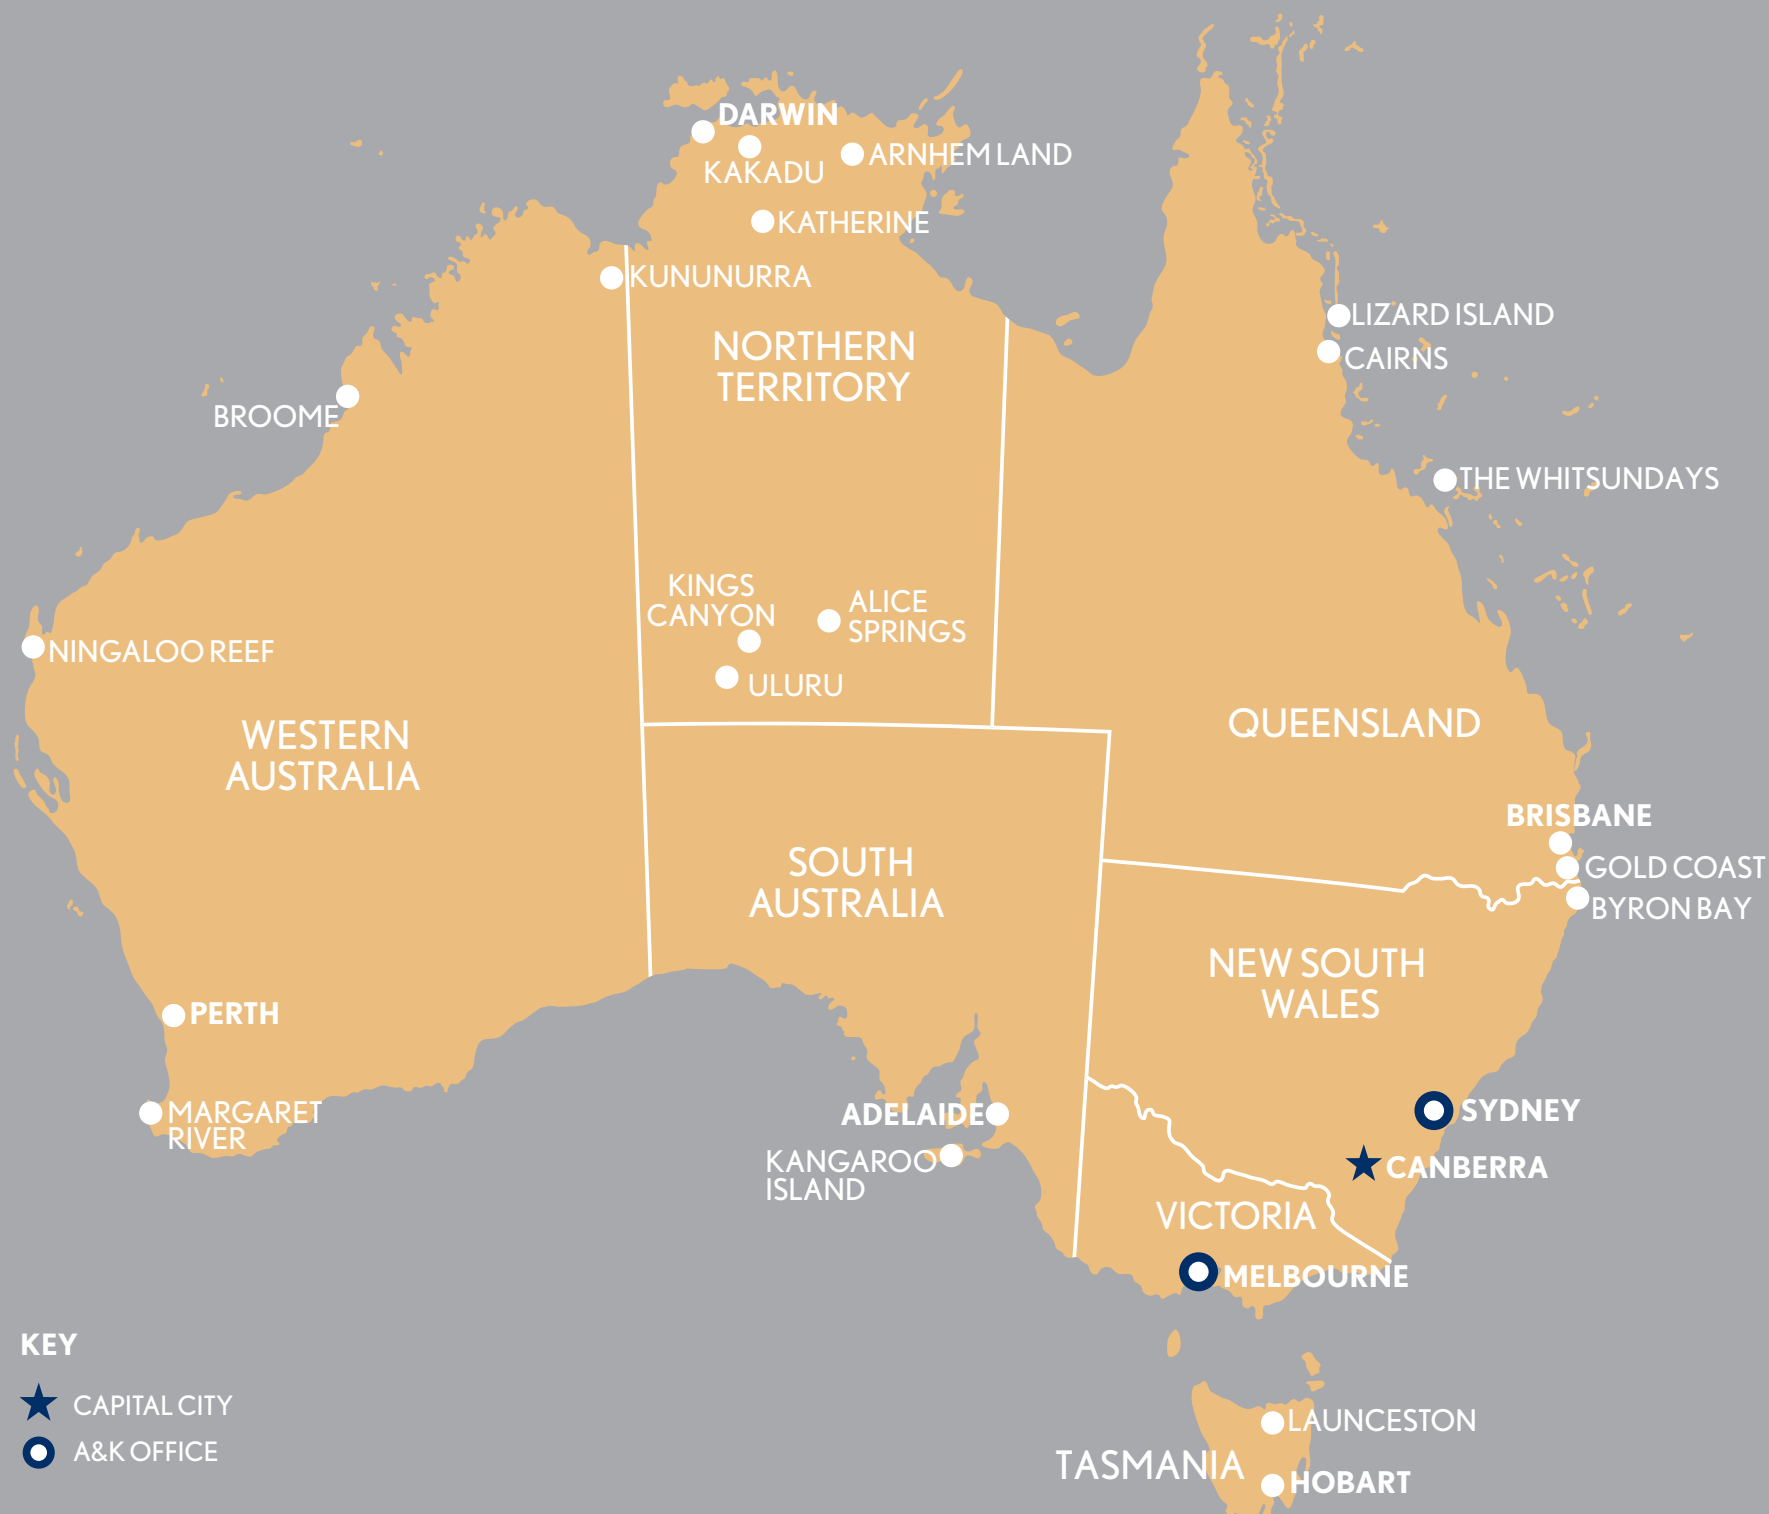

With the sun setting to the music of a lone didgeridoo, savour three courses infused with bush tucker flavours as the resident star talker decodes the night sky. Then witness 50,000 glass spheres sparkling as the Field of Light comes to life.

Seaplane to Cottage Point

Travel in spectacular style by seaplane to Cottage Point Inn, perched on the water's edge in the heart of the Ku-ring-gai Chase National Park, where an unforgettable dining experience awaits. After a leisurely lunch see Sydney's icons from the air, flying over the Harbour Bridge and Opera House.

Penfolds 'Make Your Own Blend'

An immersive experience for any budding winemaker. After a winery tour and tastings, guests are invited to the Winemakers Laboratory to try their hand at making their own wine varieties.

Travel Back in Time Through Australia's Ancestral Country

Enjoy a rare opportunity to view centuries old Aboriginal rock art in Arnhem Land. Trace Aboriginal history through some of the finest galleries depicting hunting images and scenes of the first European settlers etched in the stone escarpment. Visit the Gunbalanya Aboriginal community for an opportunity to meet traditional local artists.

Star at the Sydney Opera House

Unleash your inner diva with a walk-on role at the Sydney Opera House with Opera Australia. Visit the Opera Australia studio where you'll be fitted with a handmade costume then be guided by the Assistant Director who will run through your performance. After hair and makeup, it's time for your big moment onstage in this once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Swim with Whale Sharks at Ningaloo Reef

Right beside the barren red soils of the Cape Range in Western Australia lie the turquoise lagoons of Ningaloo Reef, a hidden gem equally as impressive as the Great Barrier Reef. A visit to the World Heritage-listed site is an unsurpassable bucket-list must. Heaving with dazzling marine life, it's the only place in the country where you can swim with gentle whale sharks or take a dip with the humpback whales on their migration south to Antarctica.

Private Chartered Vessel Experience in the Kimberley

Imagine drifting along Australia's breath-taking Kimberley coastline. Marvel at an ancient landscape of vivid contrasting colours, serene blue skies, and sparkling seas as far as the eye can see – the lapping waters and seabirds overhead the only break in your indulgent bubble of serenity. Chartering a superyacht offers the perfect idyllic holiday escape: private, flexible and safe.

Wake up in the Desert with Views From the End of your Bed

The best hotels aren't always hotels. Sometimes they're a luxury lodge with views of the ochre outback from the end of your bed or plunge pool. A beach safari camp hidden among the dunes overlooking a thousand-year-old reef. Or an isolated villa perched on the edge of a secluded island utterly inspired for the deliciously tired.

Glacier Heli Gourmet Adventure

Drink in the spectacular vistas of the South Island's rugged West Coast on a private helicopter adventure over snow-capped mountains, glaciers, lakes and ancient river valleys. Stand atop a pristine glacier in Forbes Mountain Range, touch down on a remote beach and wait in anticipation as divers descend into the depths of the waters in search of fresh crayfish. Next fly the length of majestic Milford Sound before descending into Fiordland Lodge for your delicious crayfish lunch. Continue by air over the breathtaking alpine landscapes before returning to Queenstown.

Whare Kea Chalet Private Alpine Retreat

A scenic ten-minute helicopter flight from the Matukituki Valley whisks you into the dramatic Southern Alps to the peace and solitude of Whare Kea Chalet. Sitting at 1750m, enjoy the breath-taking views across to Mt Aspiring, the country's highest peak outside the Mt Cook region. Watch the sunset over the alps as you dine on gourmet delights prepared by your host.

America's Cup Yachting Experience

The world's oldest and most prestigious sporting trophy and ultimate yachting regatta, experience an exhilarating private sailing adventure with a past or present Team New Zealand member. Take the helm of an America's Cup superyacht, trim the sails, work the grinders or simply sit back and marvel at the scenery of Auckland's beautiful Waitemata Harbour.

The Lindis, North Otago

Fall Asleep in a Remote Alpine Valley

The best hotels aren't always hotels. Sometimes they're a luxury lodge nestled in the rolling contours of a snowy secluded valley with 360° views from your hot tub, a secluded lakefront retreat that feels like your own private island, or an eco-cottage surrounded by lush flora with skylights for night-time stargazing.

FIONA READ

Cooking Class at Hapuku Kitchen with NZ MasterChef Finalist

Enjoy a hands-on, farm-to-table cooking class on a culinary adventure designed to reconnect the kitchen to the land and sea, while taking inspiration from Kaikoura's wild landscape. Owner and MasterChef finalist, Fiona Read will guide you as you forage in the garden for ingredients before preparing your lunch, under her guidance, with local beer and wine to wash it down.

THOMAS BROWN

Private Artist Encounter, Queenstown

Visit the Thomas L Brown Gallery, a former cheese factory built in 1912 and converted into a studio and gallery by Thomas Brown in 1992. Enjoy a visit from the artist himself, an educated man who studied art as a copyist at Paris's Louvre Museum before travelling to Switzerland where he captured the beauty of the Alps in his paintings.

MARGARET BARKER'S GARDEN

Private Garden Tour of Larnach Castle, Dunedin

Explore New Zealand's only castle, Larnach Castle, built in 1871 by William Larnach. The Barker family purchased the castle in 1967 and spent decades restoring it, decorating it with original period furniture and antiques. Enjoy a private presentation and tour of Margaret Barker's gardens by a garden expert as you learn about Margaret's inspiration. Margaret Barker may guide this tour.

ULVA GOODWILLIE

World's Southernmost Conservation Program at Ulva Island, Endorsed by Prince Harry

Ulva Island is a bird sanctuary located at New Zealand's southernmost tip. Tours are conducted by the passionate and knowledgeable Ulva Goodwillie. Named after her island home, Ulva is a direct descendant of the first Maori peoples of Stewart Island. On this tour, you'll learn about the native flora and fauna from a Maori and local Stewart Island perspective.
