WALT WHITMAN

A&K have joined up with one of our favourite hotel partners to offer you a totally unique and magical experience in the twinkling gem of Chile: the awe-inspiring Atacama Desert. Although you will find it hard to step away from your perfect slice of hotel heaven we suggest you leave a night in our hands; be prepared for the unexpected and be wowed by a special evening under the stars.

In this brand new expedition, exclusive to A&K, we will take you into the middle of the mighty Atacama where you will dine alfresco to the sounds of a crackling fire. However, don't panic, this is definitely more glamping style than camp-fire cowboy. You will find yourself fine Chilean wine in hand with some lip-smacking food created by the Alto Atacama team filling your stomachs - then time to curl up in soft blankets and watch the twinkling star-filled sky.

A most memorable night in an otherworldly landscape

How do you get to and from the camp?

The camp is located in a remote area and nestled into the Salt Mountains of the Atacama Desert. To reach it, you walk for an hour and a half on a gentle, mostly descending path through the desert. During this time, you will appreciate the small canyons carved by water through the mountains and salt sculptured by the wind whilst enjoying the sunset over the Andes. The following day, you will return by vehicle on a thirty minute drive on dirt roads back to the town of San Pedro and your hotel.

How many people does the camp take?

There are three tents which means that we can operate this for a maximum of six people and a minimum of two, always on a private basis.

Children aged five and under may stay in the same tent (and room) as the parents at no additional cost.

Children aged six to seventeen will get a 35% discount.

What is the staff/client ratio?

Depending on the number of passengers, the number of staff members will slightly change as well:

* There will be three staff for one to two passengers.

These are chef, guide and driver.

* There will be four staff for three to six passengers.

These are chef, guide, driver and camp assistant.

Is the camp set up when we arrive?

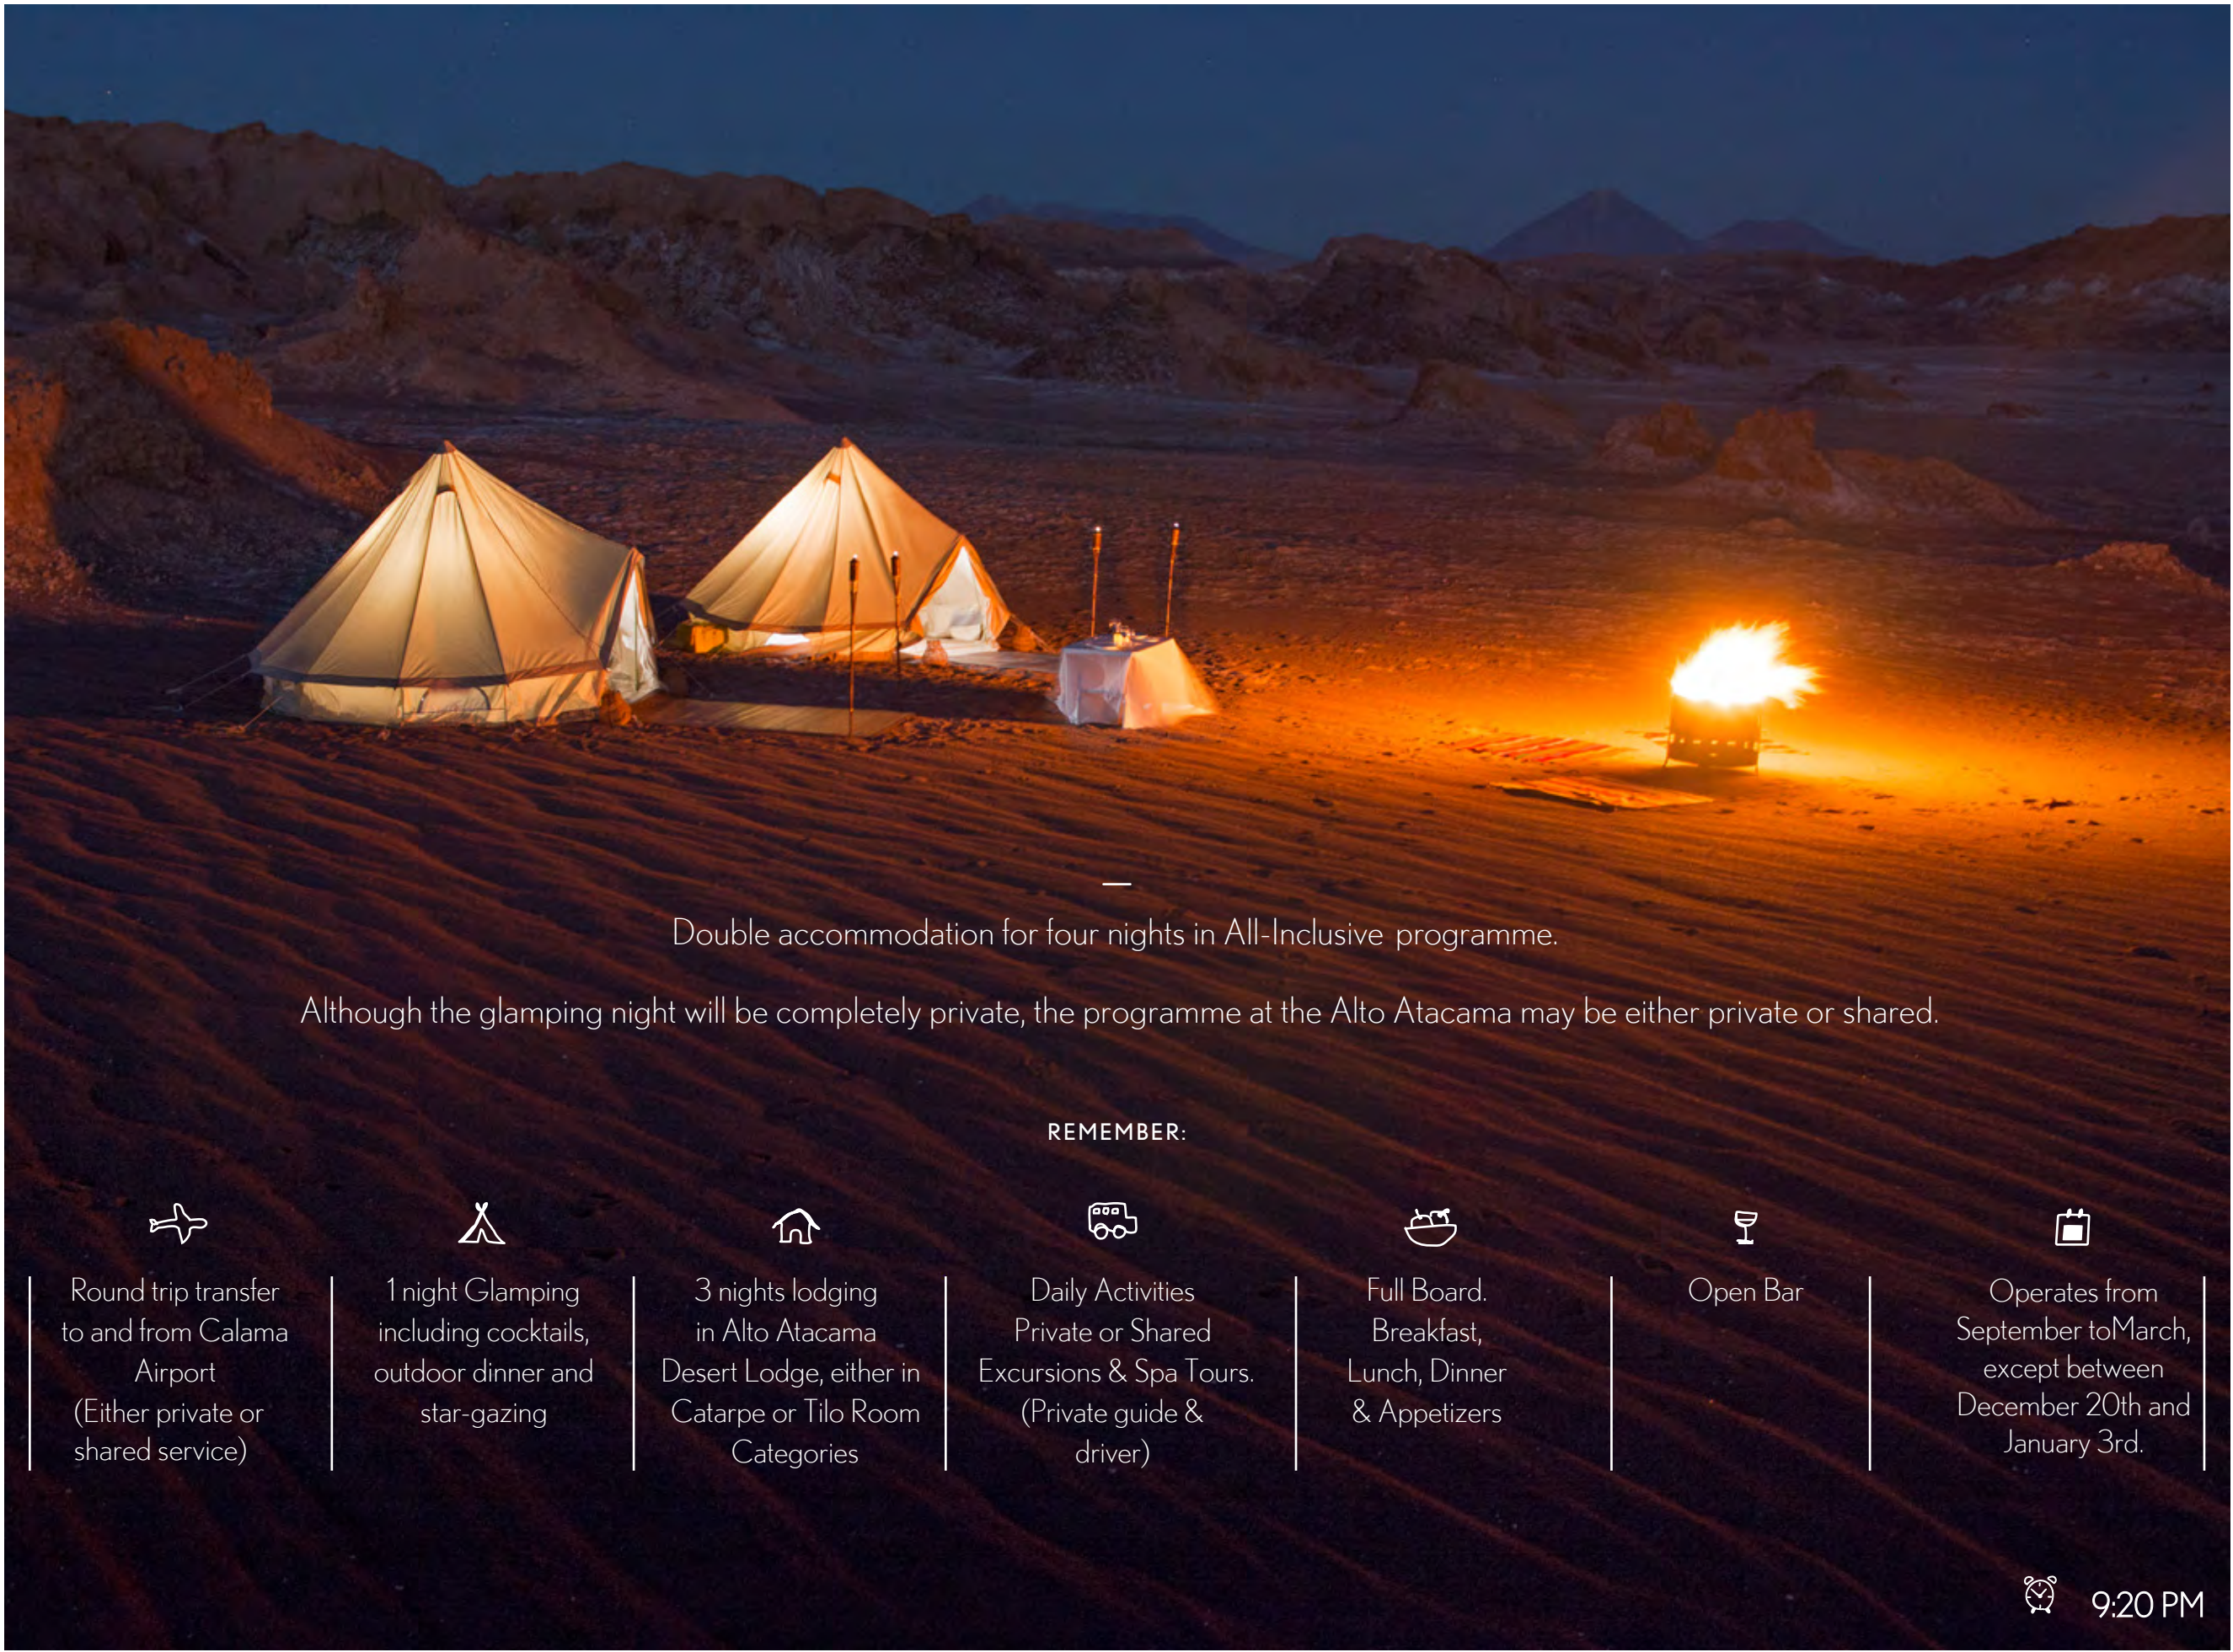

Yes. When you arrive the camp is entirely set with tents, tables, fire, bathroom and all other camp amenities ready to receive you. You will be met with refreshing cocktails and the aroma of your upcoming barbecue dinner.

What is sleeping in the tent like?

Each tent is equipped with two twin beds. Luxurious sheets, duvet, feather pillows and thick wool blankets assure that you will sleep as comfortably as any other place. Inside the tent, you will also find slippers, amenities, bottles of water and snacks to make sure all needs are met during your night with the stars.

How does the bathroom work?

We bring in a luxury mobile bathroom with men's / women's separate areas, running water, lights and the same amenities as the hotel. The bathroom is located near the tents though outside the line of sight to offer an open view of the landscapes.

Double accommodation for four nights in All-Inclusive programme.

Although the glamping night will be completely private, the programme at the Alto Atacama may be either private or shared.
